ChemInstruments now offers a Chinese language version of the popular Pressure Sensitive Tape Council Test Methods manual

ChemInstruments, a part of Chemsultants International, is pleased to announce that a new Chinese language version of the Pressure Sensitive Tape Council 15th Edition Test Methods is now available.

Fully translated from the original English edition, the new manual includes all of the standard Pressure Sensitive Tape Council Test Methods. Also included in the manual are Appendices A, B, C, D, E, F and a full Glossary of Terms for reference.

The new PSTC Test Methods Manual Chinese language version is available by contacting ChemInstruments directly at 1-513-860-1598 or by email: info@cheminstruments.com. The manual may also be ordered online using a credit card through a secure PayPal page – please go to <http://www.chemsultants.com/testing-equipment-products/accessories-and-fixtures.aspx> and follow the directions to place an order.
